Author's Notes:
This is my take on what happened. Takes place in March 2004.

She exits the room as if nothing happened.

My trembling hands have somehow become tangled in the sheet, gripping the fabric tightly.

Looking back up, she disappears down the stairs like it's a normal day.

This is not a normal day.

Maybe I'm still asleep and having a really bad nightmare.

Yeah, that's it.

Has to be it.

So why does it feel like my heart's been ripped out and stomped on?

I throw back the covers, bolt to the bathroom and collapse over the bowl dry retching.

My entire body shakes.

What the fuck just happened to my life?
